Hello, my name is Zandra Lawrence I am a licensed real estate agent, a director in the North Shore Chapter of the Long Island Board of Realtors and I welcome you to my visit and perhaps register on this web site - ZandraLawrence.com! Whether you are a first time buyer, selling your home, or looking for investment property, you will find this site is a good resource for managing the process and making an informed decision. It is a cliché that buying a home is the biggest financial decision that most people make but it is also true. We hope that this site will help you realize that goal and that you will find us &ldquo;Your partner in Real Estate&rdquo;

Looking to buy, sell, or rent a home?

ZandraLawrence.com will help provide you with the information that you need to know to save you time and to keep more money in your pocket. Just need basic real estate information?

My associates and I provide hundreds of Comparative Market Analyses each month. There is no better source for Real Estate Information in the North Shore, Long Island areas. This does not mean that we are limited to the just that area though as part of the Coach Realtor family we have the ability to provide services throughout the US. Or do you need expert advice?

No web site can replace working with a Realtor (not even this one). We can give you advice on how to find and select a Realtor and other professionals that you may need and while we would love for you to use our services &ndash; there is no hard-sell or pressure to choose us. That said, we do provide contact information throughout the site and you can always contact us for professional services and advice. Contact us with confidence!

I guarantee your privacy. The services on this site are made available for free and without obligation. All that we ask in return is that you consider us when it is time to use those professional services that you have researched here.
